

Occupational optometry services

The uniqueness of this service is taking into account the work environment in addition to the health status of the individual before planning our eye testing and management. This initiative will only enhance the employees eye ergonomics - matching visual demand at work and visual capability of the individual.

Services include the following:

1. Visit of the work place.
2. Visual task analysis at work stations. Evolving battery of tests required.
3. Measuring visual capability of the employees through eye testing.
4. Prescribing glasses, exercises, or refer them for further management to higher center.
5. Counsel on the importance of visual hygiene and personal protective equipment./ Awareness talk for all the employees
6. Report to the employer
7. Follow-up at 4 -6 months time after management.